

Retrospection.
 I sit in the twilight's gleamings, And the busy streets grow still;
 And the summer winds sigh softly, Through the pines upon the hill.
 But memories crowd upon me—
 The web from Lida's loom, And one dear face arises from out The gathering gloom.
 The magic spell is on me,
 And I've worn the chain too long;
 To forget the echoes
 Of one enchanting song—
 A voice whose soft-toned murmurs, Were sweeter far to me, Than any earth-born music Again can ever be.
 I have but few reminders—A lock of jet black hair, A kerchief and a ribbon,
 With some few words that were once fair.
 Perhaps 'tis but a weakness To thus recall the past; But each life has its romance—Its dream too sweet to last.
 And though we meet as strangers For time will change us all, Yet linger the faded picture, In memory's clustered hall;
 And when the shades of evening And night shades around me fall; I sit alone in the glooming, And the buried past recall.
 The chief use of a sea captain In these days is to explain how it all happened after most of the passengers have been drowned.
 There ought to be a fashion for ladies to unpin their hair, take it off for the hot sun and not pin it on again until about the middle of October.
 A more glorious victory cannot be gained over another man than this, that when the injury begins on his part for the kindness to begin on ours.
 In sentiment Gen. Hancock is said to be a Baptist. His father was one.
 His only child, Russell, is a Baptist.
 All of his living relatives are also of that persuasion.
 When a hen has retired from business, after a long and uneventful life as an egg-manufacturer, the unfeeling butcher throw her upon the market as a spring chicken.
 Next to a tailor who promises you a new suit in order that you may get away to the seashore on Sunday, and then disappoints you, comes the fiend in female form who brings home your washing on Monday morning instead of Friday night.
 English women are never contented until they have found a use for everything. They are happy now because they have discovered that an old silk hat can be made into a basket. The crown is a work of art and the lining is embroidered, slatted material and covered with lace, and in any work basket.
 A Denver man has offered a reward that is criminal of business. See the following from the Denver Republican: "On the same night the stable of Addison Baker, in West Denver, was burglarized. The thieves took a fine horse, and Mr. Baker has offered three rewards—$50 for the thief, $100 for the horse and thief and $200 for the head body of the thief. Now who will be the lucky man to fire the fatal shot? The horse was branded "R" on the left shoulder." Fourteen girls, students in a Western college, are writing a continued story, which one of the county papers is publishing from week to week.
 Each girl in turn writes a chapter.
 Already twelve chapters have appeared, and the story thus far concerns twelve splendid fellows, with long, silky mustache, twelve beautiful maidens, with hair that reaches the ground, and twelve stern fathers.
 Six of the heroes had each a "SU" in his name, and the other six are "De" somebody's.
 It said the sweetest reporter in the convention was a young lady with red hair. She wore a pencil behind her lovely pink ears and rubbed her dimpled chin just like a man. Frank Richardson, of the Baltimore Star, punched himself and ran up and down in front of her like a blue pigeon on the roof of a barn. He was assisted in this business by a fat young fellow named McQuide, who wore calico clothes and looked like a circus pony.
 There was no nicer episode during the convention.
 A youth of 19 years in Port Huron, recently married a lady twice his age and the mother of eight children.
 The former husband of the gushing bride left years ago for California, and for a time wrote to her regularly, sending drafts, bank notes, etc.; but after a while these ceased, and no trace of him could be obtained, and he had been given up as dead for a year. But since her second marriage she has received a long, loving letter from him, inclosing a draft and announcing his intention to return soon. A lively time is anticipated.
 What makes the matter more interesting is, that the youthful second husband was engaged to a young girl and the wedding day was fixed, when he deserted her for the charming widow.

LIGHTNING SEWER
THE NEW WILSON
Oscillating Shuttle
SEWING MACHINE

In wonderful its conception, unprecedented for doing a large range of sewing in textile fabrics and leather. Its motions are continuous, admitting of an extraordinary rate of speed, either by steam or foot power. Every motion of the treadle makes six stitches, thus producing about one-third more work in a day than other Sewing Machines. It has no stop motions, and tightens the thread with the needle's out of the fabric. It uses the well-known Wilson Compound Feed on both sides of the needle. It has two-thirds less parts than any other first-class Sewing Machine.
 Its arm is fully eight and one-half inches long and five and one-half inches high, and the whole machine is very compactly and scientifically constructed in proportion to its capacity, elegant in design and appearance. Its simple, powerful and perfect mechanism places it as far in advance of all other Sewing Machines as the telephone is superior to the tin speaking tube. The WILSON MENDING ATTACHMENT for repairing all kinds of textile fabrics WITHOUT PATCHING, furnished FREE with all WILSON SEWING MACHINES, together with a Tucker, Ruffler, Carder, Set of Hammers, Binder, etc.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

AYER'S
CHERRY
PECTORAL.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community.
 Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public.
 It is a scientific combination of the medical principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united,
 to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyan's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results.
 An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice.
 The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.
